

the kitchen light does not work, the technician has checked and there is no 12v power. the technician had to disassemble all the furniture above the kitchen to find the cable that was unconnected. he have connected it correctly and he have assembled the furniture and the light.

